

Annex A

A Double Major degree programme allows top students to be admitted into two majors, of equal weight. They will graduate with a double honours degree.

Students who choose to read a Second Major always have a primary major. They graduate with a Bachelor degree with honours in a particular major, together with a second major certificate.

Below is the full list of 16 new NTU degree programmes to be offered in AY 2016-2017:

College of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences (HASS)

Double Major

- Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Media Analytics
- Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Psychology
- Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Public Policy and Global Affairs
- Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Media Analytics
- Bachelor of Art in Psychology and Linguistics and Multilingual Studies
- Bachelor of Art in English Literature and Art History

Second Major

- Bachelor of Communication Studies with a Second Major in Business

College of Engineering

- Bachelor of Engineering in Materials Engineering with a Second Major in Medical Biology
- Bachelor of Engineering in Bioengineering with a Second Major in Pharmaceutical Engineering
- Bachelor of Engineering in Materials Engineering with a Second Major in Pharmaceutical Engineering
- Bachelor of Engineering in Bioengineering with a Second Major in Food Science and Technology

College of Science

- Bachelor of Science in Biological Sciences with Second Major in Biomedical Materials

Nanyang Business School

- Bachelor of Accountancy and Master of Science in Financial Engineering (includes a seven-week exchange in Carnegie Mellon University in the United States)
- Bachelor of Business and Master of Science in Financial Engineering (includes a seven-week exchange in Carnegie Mellon University in the United States)
- Bachelor of Accountancy with a Minor in Strategic Communication
- Bachelor of Business with a Minor in Strategic Communication

All new programmes are direct honours degrees. They will be offered in Academic Year 2016/2017 starting in August.