

STUDENT PROFILES

University Scholars Programme

Name / Age	Alma mater	Description
Japheth Eng, 21 吴建辉	Raffles Junior College	Japheth turned down opportunities to study at top schools in the UK, namely the University of Warwick and the University of Manchester, choosing instead to enrol in NTU's Nanyang Business School. He is a College Scholarship recipient.
Hillary Koh, 19 许美仪	Victoria Junior College	Hillary was offered placed at Australia's leading universities and two local universities. She chose to enrol in the Nanyang Business School, attracted by its three-year direct honours programme. Being part of the pioneer batch of the USP, Hillary believes she can make a difference. She is a Nanyang Scholarship recipient.

Renaissance Engineering Programme

Name / Age	Alma mater	Description
Ho Jia Jun, 21 何家骏	Hwa Chong Institution	Jia Jun was offered a place at Imperial College London, but was eventually drawn by the opportunity to study globally and still be based in Singapore. He is a Nanyang Scholarship recipient.
Nur Syazana Puteri, 19	St Andrew's Junior College	Syazana, although a bright and promising student, had never dreamed of studying overseas due to financial difficulties at home. But as a scholar under the Renaissance Engineering Programme, she will have the chance to spend a year in either the UK or US. Syazana's proud parents will have their financial fears allayed as well, as Syazana is also a Nanyang Scholarship recipient.

C N Yang Scholars Programme

Name / Age	Alma mater	Description
Er Jie Ling, 19 余婕菱	Hwa Chong Institution	Jie Ling received offers from several reputable universities overseas, including Imperial College London. The CN Yang Scholars Programme eventually became her choice. "I had a hard time choosing between science and engineering so I was glad to discover this programme that allows me to try my hand at both." She is a Nanyang Scholarship recipient.
Nur Hanisah Binte Sukarji, 19	Meridian Junior College	Hanisah is a firm believer of protecting the environment. Where her studies were concerned, she found the perfect match in the C N Yang Scholars Programme. "The programme touches on all aspects of science, with a flexible curriculum that allows me to learn more about sustainability too. Besides, NTU strikes me as an environmentally-conscious campus," says Hanisah. She is a Nanyang Scholarship recipient.