Singapore, 2 February 2005

THE BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONOURS) IN CHINESE PROGRAMME AT NTU

The Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Chinese at Nanyang Technological University (NTU) is a four-year undergraduate programme offered by NTU’s School of Humanities & Social Sciences (HSS).

The programme aims to establish a concrete foundation in both classical and modern texts, enabling students to pursue critical study of Chinese literature, language, history and philosophy, in both depth and breadth. The programme distinguishes itself by offering students a wide variety of subjects concerning modern China, ranging from Chinese politics, society and economic development to urban culture, international relations and Chinese diaspora studies.

The school is expected to accept some 50 major students for its Chinese programme in the new academic year in July 05. Students who major in Chinese will also have the opportunity to take double majors according to their personal interests.

Besides the Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Chinese, HSS offers the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy in Chinese. The school also offers a Minor in Chinese and a Minor in Translation for students who wish to enhance their bilingual and bicultural abilities. For details of the Chinese programmes offered by HSS, please visit www.hss.ntu.edu.sg/chinese_eng/chinese_aboutus.asp

 END ***