Factsheet

Nanyang Technological University: Details of Foo Hee Lim Bursary and Lim Chong Yah Bursary

Overview
- The total value of the Estate of Foo Hee Lim’s donation to Nanyang Technological University: $1,767,432.25
- With a dollar for dollar matching from the Government, the total amount received by NTU: $3,534,864.50
- Half of the funds will be used to establish the new Foo Hee Lim Bursary Fund and the other half will be apportioned to grow the existing Lim Chong Yah Bursary Fund

Foo Hee Lim Bursary
- Of the Foo Hee Lim Bursary, half of the amount will be designated to deserving Nanyang Business School accountancy students, and the remainder will be given to NTU under graduates in any discipline
- Applicants of the bursary award must be Singapore citizens or Permanent Residents
- Value of each bursary: $5,000 per student per year for one year
- 1st year of disbursement: 4
- 2nd year of disbursement: 9
- 3rd year onwards: 14

Lim Chong Yah Bursary Fund
- The Lim Chong Yah Bursary Fund is part of NTU’s Lim Chong Yah Campaign for Accessibility to Higher Education
- The awards are open to all deserving students pursuing undergraduate study in NTU
- Awards quantum will range from $3,000 to $12,000 per academic year for one year, based on the Per Capita Income of the student’s family. The number of bursaries awarded per academic year will depend on the available distributable income