Rules and Design Specifications

Each OG will be given a miniature replica of the Nantah Arch to be decorated creatively with any material (eg. paint, sequins or recycled material).

• You may choose to install the replica on a Styrofoam board or present it as a framed model. The entire artwork should not exceed 30cm by 30cm.
• Design must be original. It must not have been previously used, publicly revealed elsewhere, or won a prize or award.
• Design should not contain any element from the NTU logo.
• Design is not restricted to NTU corporate colours (blue and red).

Submission Details

Submit:

1. TWO (2) photographs of your artwork (in .jpeg format, 800 by 600 pixels and not more than 500kb each) and
2. a 100-word introduction of your theme to sao-fa@ntu.edu.sg by Sunday, 5 August 2012.

Final FACE-OFF!

20 artworks will be shortlisted for a final face-off and OGs will be notified by 8 August 2012 to submit the physical artworks to Sports and Recreation Centre by 10 August 2012, 5pm.

The face-off will take place during the HALE@NTU 2012 Closing Event, on 14 August, 12:30pm, at Canopy K outside LT 1A. OG representatives will then each get 30 seconds to rally votes for their artwork eg. by describing the theme. The top five winners will be determined by audience votes.

Bring your supporters to vote for your artwork!
