Singapore, Jordan look forward to deeper cooperation

Pacts on bilateral consultation, water resource management signed

As small countries with limited resources, both Singapore and Jordan must remain committed to deepening bilateral cooperation to ensure a positive outcome for firms to expand reach in ASEAN, the Middle East, says Industry Minister Chan Chun Sing.

Chan, the Jordanian counterpart, reaffirmed to work with Jordan to weave more together in the region.

Industry Minister Chan Chun Sing

Pacts on bilateral consultation, water resource management signed

It is important for like-minded countries to work together to build a positive relationship, says Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong.

Lee, accompanied by Jordanian Prime Minister Omar al-Razzaz, held talks today at the Istana.

Singapore's relationship with Jordan is one of the strong voices of the Middle East region, he said.

Prime Minister Lee Hsien Loong

Pacts on bilateral consultation, water resource management signed

The King said the countries must remain committed to fostering strong ties between Jordan and Singapore.

King Abdullah II

Pacts on bilateral consultation, water resource management signed

After the meeting, the two leaders signed a joint statement on the issue.

The statement said the two countries would continue to strengthen economic links and cooperation in many areas.

King Abdullah II

Pacts on bilateral consultation, water resource management signed

The statement said the two countries will continue to strengthen economic links and cooperation in many areas.

King Abdullah II

Pacts on bilateral consultation, water resource management signed

The statement said the two countries will continue to strengthen economic links and cooperation in many areas.

King Abdullah II

Pacts on bilateral consultation, water resource management signed

The statement said the two countries will continue to strengthen economic links and cooperation in many areas.

King Abdullah II

Pacts on bilateral consultation, water resource management signed

The statement said the two countries will continue to strengthen economic links and cooperation in many areas.

King Abdullah II