Dear Students

Singapore is home to some of the world's largest chemical plants and is one of the leading Energy and Chemical hubs. To continue being at the forefront in the area of sustainable development, Singapore aims to keep pace with the growth of the global energy market, one that is highly dynamic and technologically advanced.

The driving force behind this Industry is a pool of talented and dedicated professionals, who work collaboratively and efficiently to keep the chemical plants running 24/7.

If you are interested to learn more about this industry, make sure not to miss ChemEx, an exclusive series of virtual webinars. Organised by Singapore Chemical Industry Council (SCIC), together with their industry members, these webinars aim to provide you with an understanding of a broad spectrum of career opportunities spanning across diverse organisations – all to prepare you for work post-graduation.

Check out the details of the numerous events via the Event Brochure here. Simply register for any of the sessions that piques your interest! Do not miss this golden opportunity to engage with a multitude of Employers in the month of October.

Brought to you by CAO. Happy Learning! ☺
